- Woodies show care for the community by working with charities and local causes to help others.

Courtesy

- Woodies show courtesy by using our manners: saying 'excuse me', 'please' and 'thank you'.
- Woodies show courtesy by holding doors open for others.
- Woodies show courtesy by using 'good listening' skills.

Consideration

- Woodies show consideration by walking around school sensibly and quietly.
- Woodies show consideration by leaving communal areas tidy.
- Woodies show consideration by lining up sensibly.
- Woodies show consideration by listening to others.
- Woodies show respect for others by respecting their personal space and speaking to them kindly. We understand what is meant by consent.
- Woodies show consideration by following classroom rules: try your best; follow instructions; don't distract others; follow classroom routines.
- Woodies show consideration by celebrating the successes of others.

Preparing children for the world outside the window

- People have different opinions and we respect this.
- We make informed, sensible choices – think before you speak or act.
- We know when it is appropriate to intervene, and when it is not, and how it is best to do this.
- We appreciate forgiveness and are able to forgive others.
- It is good to ask for help when we are struggling to regulate our emotions or behaviour.
- We understand the value of kindness and that it comes in many forms.
- Be the very best that you can be: be aspirational in your learning and your behaviour.
